Engagement models:

Direct recruitment

We form a pool of candidates who are motivated to join your project during our pre-screening process. After that, we follow your recruitment procedure and let you hire/contract directly for a one-time fee of 15% of the developer's annual salary.

Staff Augmentation services

We present you with the candidates who we believe are a great fit, and their prices according to our transparent model (their salary and our fee).

If you decide to hire the developer, we hire the developer under Hiretop's roof and sign a contract between our companies. You manage them the same way as in-house employees.

Staff Augmentation services (a dedicated developer hired by Hiretop and managed by you)

You will manage your team directly, as if they were your in-house folks.

Recruitment services (you can hire a developer as a contractor or local employee)

We provide high-quality recruiting services by screening and interviewing developers, QAs, DevOps experts, designers and marketing specialists.

Hiring fee = 15% annual gross salary

but not less than 2,500 USD per FTE

Guaranteed time to hire: Two weeks*

*We will provide a minimum of two eligible candidates in the first two weeks after our kick-off call. If not, we promise to remove this phrase from here.

Why HireTop

A transparent model

We keep numbers open – you know developers' salaries and our fee. It will be YOUR OWN development team, so you can promote your culture and share your vision.

A complete focus on the Eastern European IT market

We're experts at navigating local regulations, tax policies, and relocation requirements. We deliver to conduct a highly targeted and personalized hiring process.

Proactive hiring

We don't rely on a common post-a-vacancy-and-wait approach. We use analytical research and automation tools to find top candidates efficiently. That's how a good chance of hiring quickly is secured.

A flexible model

You can make decision to hire directly, hourly or monthly for every tech expert. You pay only when you hire – no prepayment or hidden fees. We will follow your contract, MSI or NDA policy.
